

GARY McCLOSKEY
HONOREE 2019 – ST. PATRICK’S DAY PARADE

Gary McCloskey, an Eastchester resident, is an Honoree for the Eastchester Irish-American Social Club’s (EIASC) 15th Annual St. Patrick’s Day Parade.

McCloskey has extensive volunteer service throughout the community. For more than 15 years, he has taken an active role in the EIASC serving as Treasurer and volunteering for many activities. He helped establish the EIASC Annual Membership Social, a membership drive to introduce new and existing members in a friendly and informal gathering.

Many of his community volunteer commitments involve dedication to causes for children and education including serving as Board Member, Eastchester 5K Race Fundraiser to benefit local charities and community initiatives; Cub Scout Cub Master for Pack 353, Charter Organization Representative and Committee Chair for Boy Scout Troop 1, Eastchester Historical Society Board Member, Greenvale School Treasurer and most recently, Treasurer, Eastchester Eagles Sports Club.

McCloskey is Senior Manager within the Analytics Center of Excellence Business Intelligence and Governance Team for Verizon Communications in Valhalla. He holds a Master of Business Administration with a Concentration in Finance from Long Island University, a Bachelor of Business Administration in Management from Pace University. In addition he is a Certified Scrum Master, a business leadership process used to manage work on complex projects. He has also achieved Lean Six Sigma and is a Six Sigma Green Belt, both from Villanova University.

He traces his Irish roots through his father’s family who came from County Derry and Turbot Island, County Galway. They migrated to the United States, some directly to New Jersey and others through Canada, in the early 20th Century. His paternal grandmother lived in the Bronx until her death at age 95.

McCloskey and his wife Christie Marie have three children: Meghan, Ryan and Kieran. He has three brothers, Darren, Keith and Jason, and between them have 10 children. His parents John and Roberta McCloskey, along with his brothers all reside locally in Westchester County.